Dear Mr. Meredith;

Yesterday I have known about your admission to the University of Mississippi, after so many trials. Your photo also has been published in our Daily News papers and I felt extremely happy to know about you.
I congratulate you on this occasion.

To give you better introduction I am a girl aged 21 years coming from a respectable Christian family. Now I am studying in Osmania University Hyderabad, One of the famous universities of South India, for my M.A. with Philosophy as my main subject.

My father is working as a Registration Officer in the Local Govt. Department, and we belong to a middle class family.
I am the third one in my family among 6 sisters and the only brother.

Here in India we do not have the colour difference as in U.S.A because we all belong to the same brown colour.
But we have another difference by name Caste difference. We have different castes and among those some castes are considered to be very big castes. The difference now prevailing is very little when compared to 20 or 30 years back. Now after our independence our State became a secular State and so no such differences are encouraged by the Government. India is now becoming a wealthy State in every aspect.

I wish that the steps taken by the authorities should also be taken by every other all India university. After all we are all human beings coming from the Same Seed of our blessed Aden. This is Just the Difference Created by man who is selfishly wanted predominance over his fellow-man. We in India hate this kind of difference. •

I also heard that you are a veteran of Korean war. Then this admission would be your second Success in your life. By the way Mr. James ① I would like to know the Subjects you have Offered in your Class and the ② Class in which you sought admission. Please do let me know about the same. I Once again offer you my hearty Congratulations. May God bless you and in Every aspect of your life.

Yours friendly,
Kamala Kelly.
